Learn To Act

SEVERAL YOUNG GIRLS have asked the question, "Why are actresses usually so pretty? Is their beauty the reason why they have become actresses? Or does their art make them lovely?"

The last is nearer truth than the first. Of course, chorus girls exist merely by reason of their pretty faces and figures; but actresses—real actresses—have become what they are by reason of their personality. The average star is judged by her public appearances, and of course, made up carefully, she seems more beautiful. Make-up gives her a small mouth, a wonderful complexion, larger eyes and perfect eyebrows. Given features like these in perfection, and a woman must seem pretty. Expensive cosmetics, lovely gowns, correct positions in standing and walking, studied grace of attitude, cultivated voice—these things add to her charm.

Consequently, the woman who wants to make herself beautiful would do well to take lessons from her sister behind the footlights.
She would find it greatly to her advantage if she would learn to act.
For this work would teach her many essentials to beauty—first, that she must make a beautiful picture from every angle of view; second, that her voice must be low, sweet and of good carrying power; third, it will teach her control of her body, how to stand well, how to sit gracefully, how to walk—something few women know, it seems.
It will teach her expression—both facial and vocal. It will show her how to control the muscles of her face, to make them express the thought in her mind, to reflect the mood in her thoughts. It will give her assurance—poise. It will develop her chest and throat; the exercises that go with every course will develop her body and she need not go on the stage!

Played Labor Day

PHILIP C. Wong and Kong Sing Loy will meet in the finals of the Chinese Students' Alliance tennis tournamant at Punahou courts on Labor Day. In the semi-final match Wong defeated C. A. Wong in five sets, 6-4, 6-0, 4-6, 4-6, 6-4. In the other semifinal match Loy won from Y. E. Tseu in straight sets, 6-3, 6-4, 6-1.

On the morning of Labor Day the Chinese Students' Alliance will hold a basket picnic on the Punahou campus and at that time the finals in the tennis tournament will be staged and mixed doubles and ladies' singles will be booked. It was first planned to hold the picnic at Moanalua, but the committee on arrangements decided to make the change in view of the tennis feature. All members and friends are invited to be present.

HAROLD GIFFARD AND
ALEX BELL WIN FROM
SCHOFIELD GOLFERS

Harold Giffard and Alex Bell defeated James Grief and Lieut. Kneel-and Snow in the play-off golf match at Schofield on Saturday, winning from the Schofield players 5 and 3.
Bell took 76 strokes for the course, Giffard and Grief had 79 each, while Snow holed in on the 18th with an 80.

On Sunday afternoon Giffard, with
J. D. McInerney, Frank Armstrong, C.
P. Jenkins, and Hobe Walker played two rounds on the Moanalua course, Giffard winning out with four points in progressive play. On the fourth hole Giffard's shot hit the pin, and he holed his putt for a four. The five players made creditable scores on the Moanalua course.

I have a constant soreness in one side of my chest, due to a bruise received some months ago. I think: Can you advise a Reply: Better see a doctor. This is not from a bruise—some condition in the lung might have resulted from a blow or shock—best have medical care for it.

SEPARATE SKIRTS.

The separate skirt is with us once again and this season's models are lovelier than any that have gone before. For instance, one of heavy cream-colored silk with broad stripes of pale green.

Another is of French pique, finely ribbed in soft rose and white.
Taffeta skirts are much worn with separate blouses and of mohair skirts there is no end. But the latter are as little like the old stiff mohair as anything that can be imagined, being, instead, soft and silky.

All of these skirts are plaited or gathered to give fullness and are ornamented with pockets and pearl buttons.
